CONNECTIONS OCTOBER 2014

The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few: therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Luke 10: v2 (NRSV)

LETTER FROM A MINISTER

Saying “goodbye” is extremely painful. The French “au revoir” is much more gentle. “Goodbye” has finality about it. A moment, a time, a relationship has ended. There is heartache and tears. We may not meet again. It is a sort of death.

In October we have to say “goodbye” to Newport Pagnell (and Lathbury and Moulsoe, where I have also been the Rector). It has been six happy years. Elena and I have loved our time here.

We have lived in a strong community with great churches and so many wonderful Christian people.

Together, as Christian churches we have striven to show our love for God and God's love for people. There have been so many happy times, wonderful occasions and memories to cherish. I hope during my time here to have strengthened my churches for mission and service by encouraging faithful Christian communities which share in the love of God and want to share His love with others.

But now we must go our separate ways as I go into retirement. In retirement Elena and I will be living in Bidford-on-Avon, which is six miles from Stratford-upon-Avon. Elena hopes to continue working for World Vision. We also hope to be able to spend far more time with family – with children and grandchildren in Ireland (where my son John is an Anglican priest); in Brighton; and with eldest son, David and his family who are only thirty minutes' drive away from our new home. My intention is to retire as a rector but not from being a priest. Leading worship and sharing God's love with people will, I hope, continue in the local churches. As a recently retired clergy friend has told me "when I was a vicar at least I used to get one day off a week, now I get none".

The Anglican churches will also be going their separate ways. By faith, commitment and teamwork together hopefully they will build on the developments of the last few years, becoming stronger and striving further to serve God.

The Church of England does not start the official recruitment process for replacing an incumbent [vicar/rector] until after the previous incumbent has left the post. Inevitably there will be a gap of several months. My prayer is that a new rector will be appointed who will lead the Anglican churches forward in mission and work alongside the other town churches in being outward-looking communities of faith.

Saying "goodbye" is difficult and painful: it is a sort of dying. I hope we can say goodbye with so much to be thankful for and with so many happy memories, believing in faith that there is indeed new life after death for all of us.

*Reverend Michael Godfrey
Rector Newport Pagnell with Lathbury & Moulsoe*

SONGS OF PRAISE

Following the popularity of the united Songs of Praise service held last November in the Parish Church, the ministers of the town are arranging another one this year on Sunday, 23rd November at 6pm – to be held once again in the Parish Church and led by Rev Mindy Bell.

There will be more details in next month's edition of Connections but please note the date in your diary now.

Let's see if we can fill the church and raise our voices in united praise to our Lord!

GOODBYE AND THANK YOU TO MICHAEL

Rev Michael Godfrey retires this month as Rector of Newport Pagnell with Lathbury and Moulsoe. He will conduct his final service at the Parish Church on Sunday, 12th October at 10am. Everyone is welcome.

Over the past six years Michael has been very much involved in CTNP, serving on the Executive and representing the churches on the Newport Pagnell Partnership.

Michael has made many friends throughout the churches and we will miss him and wish him and Elena God's blessing as they move on to pastures new.

FISH AND CHIPS WITH ECLIPSE

We at Eclipse Counselling Service would like to invite you to join us for FISH AND CHIPS – the very British meal.

We will be meeting in the crypt at St Mary's Church Woburn on 25th October. Come for 6-30pm. and we will welcome you with a refreshing drink, to be followed by a fun evening which will involve a light hearted quiz and a hearty meal of chips to accompany fish, sausage or chicken – the choice is yours, to be made on the evening. You will also have the chance to buy some raffle tickets, should you wish to do so, and there will be a table prize for the winners of the quiz.

Tickets cost £10 per person, and we will provide tea/coffee and condiments.

We have held this event for the past 2 years and each time it has been a resounding success, so do come along and be a part of this enjoyable feast. All in all, this will be a splendid evening and with the added knowledge that you will be enabling Eclipse to carry on its sterling work of giving hope.

We hope to see you there. If you intend to come, please will you let us know so that we have an idea of numbers. Then we can make sure that we have enough tables and chairs for you all!!

Have fun!
